Notes

Sundays highlighted in this colour will possibly be school Masses – as they are dependent on available clergy and not being during holidays, we may be required to provide readers.

Thank you for your continued support with this important Ministry.

- Please note your reading duties as above and if you are unable to commit to your reading for any reason, please ensure that you swap with someone else.
- Where Deacon Mark is attending, he will read the Bidding Prayers.
- Helen Paul has stepped down from the rota but has kindly offered to stand in if required from time to time.
- Children's Masses are marked and the children usually cover the readings but I have allocated readers just in case.
