A SOIREE MUSICALE 25TH MAY NOTRE DAME CHURCH

A Soiree Musicale is the recital to be given by Caroline Kay-Mouat Soprano and accompanied by Anthony Tennant at Notre Dame Church on the 25th May starting at 7.30pm The programme will include music from Handel, Richard Strauss, Poulenc, Rachmaninov, Gretchaninov, Rimsky-Korsacov, Puccini, Gounod and Porter to name but a few. This recital was given in part in Bath at The Holburne Museum last week to critical acclaim. The Russian repertoire was particularly well received which showed the linguist in Caroline. All songs are performed in the original language and contrast delightfully with each other.

This Soiree Musicale is free on entry with a retiring collection to raise funds for CAFOD. Further information from All notices for next week's Newsletter should be given to

Diocese of Portsmouth Registered Charity No 246871

"Remain in my love." Jn 14:9

You have been very well served since you were baptised in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. At first you are bathed in the Ocean of Divine Mercy so that you do not have to be afraid to profoundly open your heart and give Jesus, through the ministry of the Church, every sin you commit.

Secondly, you are clothed in the white garment - the visible sign of belonging to the royal family. Yes, you are royal.

You are clothed in Christ Jesus, the King of the Universe, and everywhere you are, His name is entrusted to you to be proclaimed by your posture, deeds and words; and God's nature is CHARITY.

Moreover, you have been well served because you are nourished by the Body of Christ. His life, physically, becomes the part of your being. You know that when one receives the Holy Communion, it takes about 15 minutes to absorb the Body of Christ by his/her organism? Don't you? At that very moment, the holiest and yet purest love dwells in the human heart!

By the way, someone from Alderney, has just shared with me, that by participation in the daily Holy Mass, she is more hungry for Jesus in the Eucharist. More and more ...
