Art Explosion!

The winning entry for the Infants (above) was by ???????? whilst the Juniors competition was won by ??????. Her entry can be seen on the left.

We had lots of entries for our Bonfire Night Picture Competition and they were all of an exceptionally high standard. In fact, our judge, Amanda Hibbs, said she had a very difficult time choosing winners amongst so many excellent and inventive pictures.

Mrs Hibbs is a graphic designer for Specsavers Optical Group and she also designed the livery of our Guernsey buses and the advertising you see on the back of them! So, she knows a thing or two about art.

After considerable deliberation, the following were declared the winners:

Thank you!

Thank you to everyone who spent a whole Saturday sorting out the PTFA shed last month, whilst Mrs Shepherd kindly kept their offspring amused with all sorts of games and activities. A huge thank you too to Norman Piette, who donated all the timber for the shelving and dry-lining. Their help and generosity is much appreciated!

Another big thank you goes to Close Bank Charity Foundation, who kindly donated £400 to our PTFA!

Serena Ogier (overall Infants)
Chloe Smale (overall Juniors)
Cerys Collins (Reception)
Zoe Tester (Year 1)
Anya Tee (Year 2)
Emma Avery (Year 3)
Lucy Henke (Year 4)
Joshua Lambourne (Year 5)
Drew Jonkmans (Year 6)

Entries put in by Isabella Taylor (Y1), Raegen Jennings (Y4) and Sebastian Tee (Y5) were also highly commended.

Thank you to everyone who entered and thank you to all the parents who allowed the children free rein with glitter, glue and paint!

Welcome!

We are delighted to welcome Debbie Baker onto the PTFA committee. She was unanimously co-opted at the last meeting. Debbie is mum to Thomas in Reception.
